I wish I had something to say

I'm pretty sure you looked at me

There's no one else at this party

It could be that nobody else shows up
I will take a sip from my plastic cup

Vs.4

I was really worried I was freaking out
I guess that's what love's all about
Every nerve said I should go
But I went to you and I said hello.

I'm only here because you're here
It makes me smile to know you're near
I tell a joke just to see you grin
I hope this party never ends
I hope this party never ends
I hope this party never ends
