

That's Alright

(Words and music by Joshua Starmer, copyright 2015)

V1

I see the world the way I want to see the world from over here.

D Bmin

Everything is clear.

A

You see the world the way you want to see the world from over there.

D Bmin

In your rocking chair.

Chorus

So we might fight

G

All night

A

But that's alright with me.

D

V2

I ride a bike you drive a truck I shake my fist up in the air.

To let you know I care

You leave your trash out on the curb for weeks on end it makes me mad.

I bet that makes you glad

Chorus

V3

You stay up late I go to bed I hear the noise right through the wall.

I give the cops a call.

I'm up at 5 it's time for work when the cops arrive and take me in.

Oh not again!

Chorus / Instrumental Verse and Chorus

V4

I get back home my fingers crossed but I'm not alone you're still around.

Sitting on the ground.

We've tried to be apart but there's nothing's worse than a lonely heart I guess I see.

You're the one for me.

Chorus / Chorus (ending on "alright!")
