

Say Your Goodbyes

(Words and music by Joshua Starmer, copyright 2016)

Verse

Airplane leaving first thing tomorrow

Bmin D A Emin

“Sure thing”, he said he’ll take her there

Bmin D A

Sharp pain, all mixed up with sorrow

Bmin D A Emin

He wonders if he’ll see her again.

Bmin D A

One way coach ticket to Paris

He walks her to security

He tries to act as if he could care less

He wonders if he’ll see her again.

Chorus

It might not be for years

Bmin G

It might not be forever

D A/C#

Verse

Postcard of half naked statue

Flips it over reads a note to him:

“Food’s great, and so is the fashion”

He wonders if he’ll see her again.

Chorus

Bridge

Did she need to be free?

A G Bmin

Did she need to go?

I remember her smiling

G Bmin

Smiling at me

A

Why did she leave?

G Bmin A

Verse

He keeps up, sees her pictures on twitter
Looks like she's having quite a time
Seasons change, his memory is fading
He thinks he'll never see her again

Last Chorus

It might not be for years
It might not be forever
So say your goodbyes.
